

Our Stay in Hofheim, Germany

March 6th to 12th 2016

Erasmus group

Day 1

School visit

- The school is in the center of Hofheim.
- Outside, in the entrance of the school, there were a lot of signs to say good luck for the Abitur exam which is the same as the BAC in France. They were made by students' parents or friends.
- This school begins from primary school to the Abitur.
- There is only one big building in this school and three floors.

Main-Taunus-School

The city of Hofheim

- Hofheim is a city near Frankfurt in the land of Hesse.
- There are 38.000 habitants in 57km².

Day 2

- Visit of a sewage in the morning
- We visited the sewage on Tuesday March 6th from 9 o'clock to 13:30. This sewage is located on a hill near Hofheim
- The visit was made by an employee Iof the sewage. He showed us different amenities such :
 - the sorting of waste
 - the retention of waste
 - the control room
 - the laboratory
 - and 2 water retention basins

Workshop on microplastics in the afternoon

Pictures of the sewage

The employee of the sewage testing the water

Sorting of waste

Two water retention basins

Day 3

- On Wednesday we went to Frankfurt.
- In the afternoon we made a rallye in the city.

Located on the Main , the city has 724,869 inhabitants.

Frankfurt is the 4th financial center of Europe and the richest city in Germany.
It is the seat of the European Central Bank (ECB).

- The city is characterized by a large number of skyscrapers. Frankfurt is considered a city great economic power.
- We went on the top the Main Tower. This skyscraper measures 240 meters high (including the antenna).

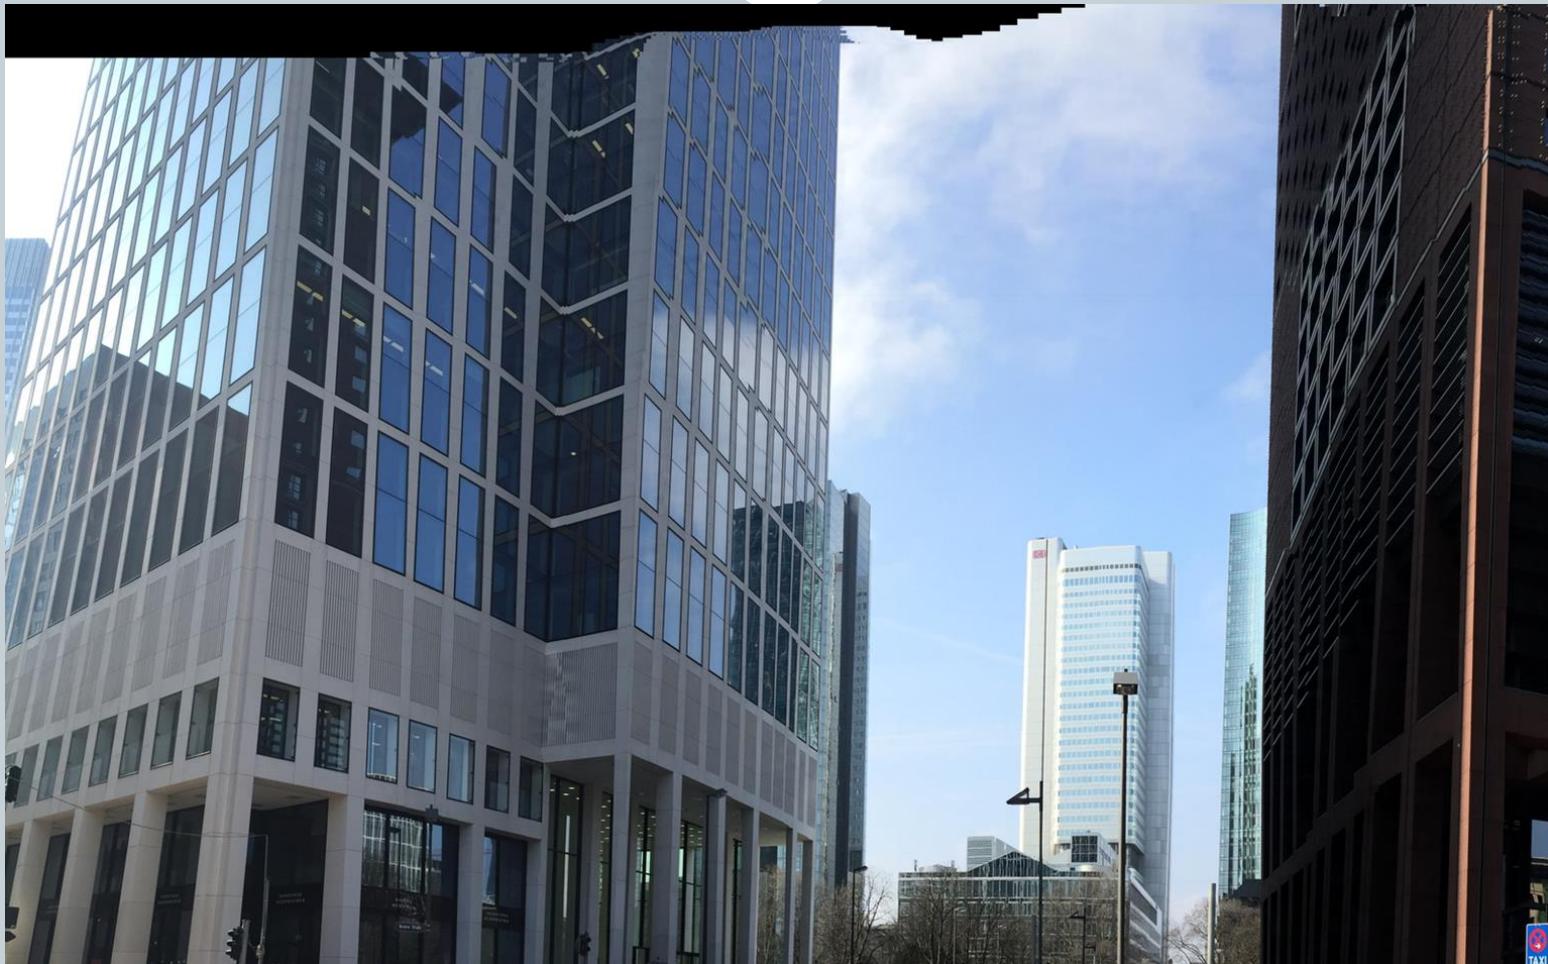

Main tower

Day 4

- Rapp's Kelterei (a famous juice factory)

Bad Vilbel

- Water and bottles museum

Bad Vilbel Römermosaik

Day 5

- We walked 50 minutes to Assmannshausen.
- Here we are in front of The Niederwalddenkmal. It is a monument located in the Niederwald landscape park, near Rüdesheim am Rhein in Hesse.

The river Rhine seen from the road of Niederwald landscape park

11.03.2016 11:31

The city of Assmannshausen

Lunch at « Anker Tavern » in Assmannshausen

Our host families

- My host's name is Jana. She has an older sister. Her family lives in the city of Hofheim, they live in an apartment but they have two floors in the building.
- My host family was very kind with me and very welcoming.

• Camille, 2nde

- My hostfamily was very nice. They live in Wecker at 20 minutes from Hofheim.
- My penpal was Florian.
- Every morning we took the bus at 7h, so we needed to wake up at 6h.
- The appartement where we lived was at the 3rd floor.
- On Tuesday we went to Florian's Handball training, with his friends.
-
-

• Tristan , 1ère